

In Loving Memory of

David Anthony Keegan

2nd January 1957

23rd December 2024

Graveside service at Byron Bay Cemetery 9th January 2025 at 10:30am Celebrant : Angela Quinn

Following today's service, you are warmly invited to join the family for light refreshments at Byron Bay Golf Club to share your fond memories of David.

Order of Service

Opening song -

This Must Be the Place (Talking Heads)

Welcome & Words of Comfort

Poem - When Great Trees Fall

Eulogy - Michael Burgess

Family Tribute - Fay Keegan

Reflection song - Change the World (Eric Clapton)

Words from David's Children - Mat, Jess

Tributes from friends and colleagues

Committal

Reading from Viktor Frankl

Closing words

Songs & placement of petals and mementos -

Wish You Were Here (Pink Floyd);

I Feel Free (Cream)

Man's Search for Meaning

by Viktor Frankl:

*"What is to give light must endure burning.
Those who have a 'why' to live, can bear almost any 'how.'
For the individual who lives for a cause, for a purpose, and for others, their essence remains undiminished, no matter the trials of the body or the mind.
Though circumstances may change, the meaning we attach to our lives cannot be lost. And so, even in the face of great suffering, the person who lives with purpose remains steadfast, like the steady light in the distance, always guiding, always there."*

