LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING: Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9

Gail Ormond

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

The Lord Is My Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd and I want to follow, wherever he leads me, wherever he goes.
Over the mountains, the waters and byways,
valleys and highways he's waiting for me.

Refrain: I want to go to meet him there,

to lay myself down in his love.

The Lord is my shepherd and I want to follow,

wherever he leads me, wherever he goes.

And while on the journey to where we are going,

he promised to be there to help us

along,

and over the mountains, we'll

walk on together,

to know all the wonders he's given to me. (R)

PLEASE STAND TO WELCOME THE GOSPEL

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are those who have died

in the Lord;

let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them.

Alleluia

GOSPEL: Matthew 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse

you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you,

Lord Jesus Christ.
